IFAGG updates for calendar 2021 (spring 2021, COVID-19 reflections)

Dear IFAGG Members,

Unfortunately, we are still under pandemic globally. Same time we see the light in future; vaccinations has been started and we are looking forward to meeting you live.

Status with COVID-19 pandemic is different in different countries; status varies and with very short notice, continuous re-planning is needed. During lockdowns there are no training possibilities. If activities are allowed, might be organized in local or regional level, and in some countries also national level, but international travelling is still limited. Due to this pandemic situation, IFAGG planning to organize virtual events.

We will start our season with refreshing webinars for IFAGG international judges. We will also give possibility for high level national AGG judges to participate if our member decides to register them.

- 28. February will be Judges webinar concerning children rules
- 7. March will be Judges webinar concerning short program \(all ages\)

Detailed information and link for registration will be on IFAGG webpages.

IFAGG Council evaluated the global situation and has unanimously agreed to cancel or postpone IFAGG sanctioned competitions and events according to the list below:
